Hatherleigh Press,U.S., United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Your guide to the stresses, fears, and anxieties NORMAL to parenting. Am I a Normal Parent? features a powerful self-assessment quiz that will quickly help you understand what is wrong (and right) in your parenting style. Just by answering 50 easy-to-complete, highly revealing questions, you will know if what you are thinking, doing, and feeling as a parent is normal.or not. And what can be done about it. Children, while often angelic and sweet, can be challenging as well. You can feel overwhelmed by your children s behavior, and ask yourself: ? Are my responses and actions correct? ? Do other parents feel unsure of how to handle certain situations with their children as well? ? Is it normal to be so uncertain that what I am doing is correct? This book addresses your needs and concerns as a parent. Created by parenting expert Sara Dimerman, Am I A Normal Parent? reveals the behaviors, questions, and problems that you face on a daily basis and addresses the insecurities and fears common to parents world-wide. Every parent faces questions and uncertainties when it comes to raising children. There are no absolutes, and in the face of the profound responsibility of being a parent in this day and age, it can be very stressful to have self-doubt. Rest assured: you are not alone. All parents question their actions and often feel insecure about their choices. In addition, there are numerous questions that parents are often afraid to ask: ? Is it okay to get angry when my toddler doesn t listen? ? Is it okay to get jealous when my child monopolizes my spouse s time? ? Is it normal to wonder if...
