Not illustrated. 1909 Excerpt: .fork of the South Platte river, near the point known as Twin Bridges, Park county, Colorado, the board of construction being the State Engineer and the chairman of the board of county commissioners of Park county. The board viewed the site, and this office prepared plans and specifications for a 40-foot span reinforced concrete bridge, slab and girder type, with pipe hand-rails, including approaches. The work was advertised and bids received on May 20, 1908, as follows: The contract was awarded to M. F. Levy Construction Co., the county agreeing to pay all cost of bridge in excess of the appropriated amount, not to exceed $400.00. After the contract was signed the county commissioners expressed the desire to do the filling of the approaches themselves, and the contractor agreed to deduct $185.00 from his contract price on this account. The bridge was completed about November 5,...
