The Survival Guide for Newly Qualified Social Workers in Adult and Mental Health Services: Hitting the Ground Running

By Diane Galpin, Jenny Bigmore, Joanne Parker

Jessica Kingsley Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Survival Guide for Newly Qualified Social Workers in Adult and Mental Health Services: Hitting the Ground Running, Diane Galpin, Jenny Bigmore, Joanne Parker, Formal education has finally ended, you've passed your exams and you're getting started as a newly qualified social worker (NQSW). As you make the transition from student to fully fledged practitioner, you'll soon discover a whole host of challenges as you hit the ground running in your new career. This handbook will guide you through the initial hurdles you will face in this transitional phase, helping you to fully understand your role and how to meet the requirements of NQSW status. The book explores the practicalities of starting work in a new organisation and the professional demands particular to adult and mental health services, such as working jointly with other professions and maintaining your professional identity. A range of strategies are provided for staying motivated, managing stress and developing support networks. The authors also explore the role of supervision and critical reflection, and give advice on continuing professional development. This survival guide is an essential support to students, newly qualified social workers, practice educators and post-qualification practitioners...
