A Muse, unskill'd to touch th' harmonious string, To virtuous Cowper, her just tribute pays. At Friendship's call, she plumes her tender wing; To Friendship, consecrates her artless lays. And ye, who well the happier secret know, At once instruct, to soothe and charm mankind, Forgive, if here, no polish'd numbers flow; If here, no cultivated flowers ye find. But, if her desultory strain convey One just, one genuine lesson to the heart; If Truth and Virtue own her rude essay; She asks no higher praise: for these impart To her more pure delight, than wreaths supplied From fam'd Castalia's spring, or Pindus' flowery side. A very amazing publication with perfect and lucid information. We have read through and that i am certain that i will planning to study once more yet again in the future. You will not really feel monotony at anytime of the time (that's what catalogues are for about should you question me).
