This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Master's Thesis from the year 2011 in the subject English - Pedagogy, Didactics, Literature Studies, grade: 10,00, , course: Enseñanza de inglés como lengua extranjera. English as a Second Language., language: English, comment: Esta tesis de máster recibió el premio extraordinario de proyecto de fin de máster de la promoción 2010-2011. Trabajo basado en la experiencia de una profesora de inglés como lengua extranjera con 10 años de experiencia. , abstract: Speaking in a second or foreign language has often been viewed as the most demanding of the four skills. When attempting to speak, learners must master their thoughts and encode them in the vocabulary and syntactic structures and functions of the target language for a communicative purpose. This desire for speaking stems from the desire for communicating with the members of another community. Because, what is language but communication Communication is what has allowed man to evolve and develop. It is at the heart of any relationship and forms the basis of human civilization. Oral communication and conversation is the rock on which personal relationships are built. It is such a common part of our everyday lives that we take it for granted. From a casual conversation with a stranger at a bus stop to an intimate conversation with some friends, it would be impossible for us to go about our daily lives without being able to communicate with others. It is not only on a personal level that oral communication is important. When we watch TV, listen to the radio, listen to a lecture at university, we are participating in an oral communication act and certainly, when we listen to a personal, short story...
