What happens when you find yourself caught between a painful past and an uncertain future. Renee Evans has a knack for trouble. After walking in on her best friend and boyfriend in bed together, twenty-five year-old Renee flees her dream job as a music journalist in sunny Los Angeles and returns to her hometown of Boston - only to meet Dylan Cavallari, the mysterious, aspiring musician who lives in her apartment building. Dylan s piercing gaze and womanizing demeanor make him exactly the type of guy that Renee should steer clear of - which is most likely the reason she falls for him. But when Renee s troublesome ex comes back and threatens to drive her and Dylan apart, Renee is forced to face her past and save her relationship with Dylan before it s too late. Sound Bites is a novel about love, friendship, betrayal, forgiveness, and the power of music to help you find your way.
