.Christmas, the most wonderful and magical time of the year has its very own traditional pageantry and beautiful old customs that are celebrated throughout the Christian world as a major festival, public holiday and, important family feast day. The traditional twelve day festive holiday begins Christmas Day until Epiphany in the New Year which falls on January 6th. The spirit of Christmas embodies many wonderful qualities for those people who feel it in their heart and have the eyes of faith. The season is so full of wonder, meaning and tradition, with its wonderful sights and sounds that can be felt, seen and heard everywhere that bring out the best in people. It s a time for spreading good cheer and for remembering others less fortunate than ourselves. It reminds us that Christmas is a time for giving, a time for peace on earth and goodwill to all that crosses all boundaries and reaches out to all people as we look forward to the joy of the season. There s nothing quite like the feeling...
