

Summer Home Review: A Community of Words a Circle of Poets an Anthology of Selected Poems and Stories

By Jacqueline M. Loring

Authorhouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 208 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.5in. This anthology is more than a gathering of poems and poets. It is a convergence of paths, a literary labyrinth, and an honoring of the written word. Summer Home Review is the work of nurses, firemen, teachers, healers, soldiers, lawyers, singers, union members, and play writes. While it is true that the poetswriters in this anthology have all participated in the same workshop and that some of them are Vietnam veterans, their poems are neither war poetry nor writing that is of workshop quality. All the poems in Summer Home Review have an edge. Poems by Dorinda Foley Wegener may delight while poems by Gary Raffery may infuriate or sadden but all the work is compelling. Through the book you can trace the literary bonds of the poets and the influences of their poet-teachers like Bruce Weigl, Fred Marchant, Yusef Komunyakaa, Lady Borton, Bill Ehrhart, and Martha Collins. Like travelers in a labyrinth, the poets included in Summer Home Review have reached the center and, with its publication are making their way back to the beginning. This book begins for you at the center. If you choose,...
