Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Discourse Delivered at Dorchester On an occasion fraught with so many interesting associations, no topick has appeared to me more appropriate to the season, or the place, or to the assembly, whom I am invited to address, than that, suggested by Proverbs xvii. 6. The Glory of Children Are Their Fathers. Think not, from the subject proposed, that I am about to enter upon an extravagant and unqualified eulogy of our venerable ancestors. It would be unjust to their memories to treat with such praise those, who, with unaffected humility and contrition, were so ready to lament their many imperfections. Much less shall I be expected to particularize or reprobate their foibles or their vices. A much more suitable expression of filial piety is it, while we spread the mantle of oblivion or of charity over their failings, as men, to propose, as worthy of careful imitation, of everlasting remembrance, their pre-eminent virtues, as christians. It may be proper here to premise the glory, which is claimed for the fathers of our rising Republic....
